

Rapid Response Fund

Talking Points

- 1 Right now, communities across the Middle East are grappling with widespread devastation, displacement, and deep emotional trauma. Thousands of families are still unable to return home and lack access to essentials like food, clothing, and shelter.
- 2 These urgent, unbudgeted needs are exactly why The Joshua Fund – a Christian nonprofit that blesses both Jews and Arabs in Israel and Her Neighbors in the name of Jesus – created the Rapid Response Fund.
- 3 The Rapid Response Fund allows The Joshua Fund to move swiftly when crises strike—providing immediate, practical aid through trusted local believers when the need far exceeds what’s planned or expected.
- 4 The Rapid Response Fund supports a wide range of emergency relief that is delivered through trusted local believers, including safe housing, food, clothing, diapers, hygiene kits, and trauma care.
- 5 It also strengthens local congregations, helping pastors care for their communities.
- 6 You can support believers in the Middle East and provide aid to hurting families right now by scanning the QR code on the screen.
- 7 Every gift to the Rapid Response Fund helps bless Israel and Her Neighbors in the name of Jesus—swiftly, strategically, and compassionately.
